2013 Annual Meeting to be April 5-7

The 2013 Mid-South Federation annual conference will be April, 5, 6 and 7 at Kanuga Conference center in Hendersonville, NC. Please mark your calendars now and plan to attend. We hope to expand our participation numbers this year, and our goal is to have 70 attendees! This means that we want you to be there, AND bring a friend.

The program will feature Ed Abdil, Vice President of the Theosophical Society in America; David Bruce, Secretary, and Head of the Education Department; and Betty Bland, past national President..

Also presenting will be Holly McClure, founder and president of Sullivan Maxx Inc. Literary Agency. She is past president and conference director of Southeastern Writers Association and a frequent instructor and lecturer at writers workshops. Holly's experiential presentations will draw on her Native American heritage.

Registration information for the conference will be posted on the national website beginning in February at www.Theosophical.org/membership/federations/midsouth

This conference offers a unique opportunity to hear and learn from these well-known and accomplished speakers all in one weekend! Members of all federations are encouraged to attend and to invite others interested in Theosophy. Everyone is welcome!
