Consciousness, the Critical Factor in Human Evolution [sound] recording] / Joy Mills. Wheaton, IL : Theosophical Society in America, p2009, c1974. 1 sound disc (50 min.)

Joy Mills argues that to produce real change in the real world we must change ourselves. We begin by understanding our own consciousness, which is characterized by two fundamental functions: the ability to make choices and the capacity to impose meaning. Allowing others to make choices for us or sleepwalking through life diminishes our own humanity.
