Bridge over Treasured Waters [sound recording] : mathematics, metaphor, and the weird and wonderful gap between thing and no thing / Jonathan Zimmer. Wheaton, IL : Theosophical Society in America, c2010. 1 sound disc (51 min.)

Madame Blavatsky wrote: "Nature geometrizes universally in all her manifestations." Religions have long offered stimulating metaphors for linking the physical world and the spiritual realm. Mathematics is yet another avenue, potentially as rich, deep, and exciting, connecting the earthly and the ethereal, the concrete and the abstract, the worldly and the mystical.

The Golden Section [videorecording] : nature's greatest secret / Scott A. Olsen. Wheaton, IL : Theosophical Society in America, c2010. 1 videodisc (68 min.)
Dr. Olsen presents many of the discoveries that led to the writing of his award winning book, The Golden Section: Nature's Greatest Secret. The golden section is one of the most beautiful and elegant ratios in the universe. A fundamental principle of aesthetics that has been carefully applied in music, architecture, and art, it has played a central role in the ancient wisdom traditions, including those of ancient Egypt, the Pythagoreans, and Plato. Dr. Olsen shares some of the very recent empirical discoveries in biology and quantum mechanics that help to establish once and for all the importance of the golden section in the transformation of form, life, and consciousness.
