The Moral Life and the Ethical Life / Eliseo Vivas. Chicago : University of Chicago Press, c1950. 390 p.

“This is a serious, learned, and searching exploration of some of the most difficult questions which have ever concerned the human mind. It is also tough-minded in the sense that it recognizes all the difficulties, begs no questions, offers no easy solutions and, unlike conventional protests against modern skepticism, makes no plea for a leap in the dark to an unexamined faith.”

The Telling of the World : Native American stories and art / edited by W.S. Penn. New York : Stewart, Tabori & Chang, 1996. 240 p.

The anthology contains legends and stories from many Native American tribes and nations - Mohawk, Sioux, Cree, Nez Perce, Yakima, Cherokee, Zuni, to name but a few - collected from both traditional and contemporary sources. These inspirational tales follow the path of life - from creation and birth, through adolescence, family relationships, love and marriage, death and renewal. Words recounted by respected storytellers reveal a unique approach to the world, as well as a desire to pass along the knowledge necessary to lead a good life. Taken as a whole, the stories reveal an innate power to entertain, to instruct, to bind people together into a healing community, and to provide an identity and a unifying vision.
