TO

WILLIAM COOPER,

RECTOR OF RIPPINGALE, LINCOLNSHIRE :

THIS VOLUME IS INSCRIBED

BY HIS FRIEND,

R. A. WILLMOTT.

O could we copy their mild virtues, then
 What joy to live, what blessedness to die!
 Methinks their very names shine still and bright;
 Apart—like glow-worms on a summer night:
 Or lonely tapers, when from far they fling
 A guiding-ray; or seem, like stars on high,
 Satellites burning in a lucid ring.*

* Wordsworth, iv. 102.
