Mar 2 Mysteries of the Celtic Goddesses by Hazel Archer-Ginsberg

Video, facilitated by Mary Jo Kokochak

Celtic mythology was passed on orally by Druid priests, and worship of Celtic Goddesses was discouraged by the Romans and Christians. However, many Celtic figures were integrated into the new culture. Learn how goddesses like Brigid, with her powers of Fire of Inspiration, Hearth, and Forge, are celebrated today. A guided meditation and chanting conclude the DVD. Hazel Archer-Ginsberg is a spiritual midwife, transdenominational minister and Festivals Coordinator of the Rudolf Steiner Branch of the Anthroposophical Society in Chicago.

Mar 9 Muslims Who Believe in the Messiah

Presentation by Imam Shamshad A. Nasir

The Ahmadiyya Muslim Community was founded in India in 1889. It seeks to establish spiritual values, and advocates peace, mutual respect, and universal brotherhood among the followers of all faiths. It is a dynamic and reformist movement within Islam which supports the empowerment and education of women. Imam Nasir is known for his scholarly knowledge of Islam, for promoting peace through interfaith dialogues, peace symposiums, and for building bridges of understanding and friendship between Ahmadiyya Islam and other faiths. He works throughout the U.S. with many community, state and national leaders to promote peace through increasing understanding of each other.

Mar 16 Yoga for Everyday

Presentation by Sandy Naimou

Every day brings new challenges. How can we rise above tough times and navigate life with a sense of calm and confidence? Yoga teaches the art of overcoming with grace and power. An interactive evening while still seated in your chair will give you plenty of strategies to take home for everyday. Sandy Naimou teaches yoga full-time, primarily at GM, and has been practicing for twenty years. She holds a B.A. in psychology, a M.A. in women's and gender studies, and is currently a TSD board member.

Talks on the Path of Occultism Vol 3 – "Light on the Path"

by Annie Besant & C.W. Leadbeater

This book is one of a trilogy, being commentaries on three classics – At the feet of the Master, The Voice of the Silence, and Light on the Path - considered the mystical gems of Theosophical Literature. They throw light on the deep significance and far-reaching implications of the perennial teachings embodied in these three classics whose subject matter is the path of inner transformation and spiritual realization.
