May 5 Mysterious Universe - Madame Helena Blavatsky

Audio Recording by Gary Lachman (Facilitated by Gary Contesti)

Gary Lachman discusses his new biography, 'The Mother of Modern Spirituality', Madame Helena Blavatsky. Still being hailed as an icon and scorned as a fraud more than 120 years after her death, Blavatsky was a mystic, occult writer, child of Russian aristocrats, who traveled five continents, and founded the Theosophical Society. Gary, the acclaimed spiritual biographer behind volumes such as Rudolf Steiner and Jung the Mystic, brings us an in-depth look at Blavatsky, objectively exploring her contributions toward introducing Eastern and esoteric spiritual ideas to the West, as well as the controversies that continue to colour discussion on her life and work.

Lecture by Robert Thibodeau

Join us to learn how the Helena Blavatsky's last two books (The Voice of the Silence and Key to Theosophy) reveal ways to Higher Consciousness, a Path to Spiritual learning and empowerment.

The Ancient Wisdom* by Annie Besant

Theosophy is the wisdom underlying underpinnings of all religions when they are stripped of accretions and superstitions. It offers a philosophy which renders life intelligible and demonstrates that justice and love guide the cosmos. Its teachings aid the unfoldment of the latent spiritual nature in the human being, without dependence or fear.

Annie Besant (October 1, 1847 - September 20, 1933) was the President of the Theosophical Society of India from 1907; founded Home Rule League in 1916 and demanded self rule in India. She became first woman president of the Indian National Congress. She was a prominent Theosophist, social reformer, political leader, women's rights activist, writer and orator. In the 1890s She wrote an enormous number of books and pamphlets on theosophy. She traveled (1926-27) in England and the United States with her protégé Jiddu Krishnamurti.
