Dalai Lama Renaissance [videorecording] : a personal journey to transform the world / a film by Khashyar Darvich; narrated by Harrison Ford. Hollywood, CA : Wakan Films, 2009. 1 videodisc (82 min.)

"Dalai Lama Renaissance, narrated by Harrison Ford, is the winner of 12 awards and the official selection of over 40 international film festivals. At the edge of the Millennium, the Dalai Lama of Tibet invited 40 of the West's leading, most innovative thinkers to his residence in the Himalayan Mountains of northern India to discuss the world's problems and how we can solve them. What transpired was unexpected and powerful, and captured by an 18 person, 5 camera film crew. The film features quantum physicists Fred Alan Wolf and Amit Goswami (from What the Bleep Do We Know?), Dr. Michael Beckwith (from The Secret), national radio host Thom Hartmann, revolutionary social scientist Jean Houston, and others." -- From publisher description.

Dewey : the small-town library cat who touched the world / Vicki Myron, with Bret Witter. New York : Grand Central Pub., 2008. 277 p.

"The story of Dewey Readmore Books, the beloved library cat, starts in the worst possible way. Only a few weeks old, on the coldest night of the year, he was stuffed into the book return slot at the Spencer, Iowa, Public Library. He was found the next morning by library director, Vicki Myron, a single mother who had survived the loss of her family farm, a breast cancer scare, and an alcoholic husband. Dewey won her heart, and the hearts of the staff, by pulling himself up and hobbling on frostbitten feet to nudge each of them in a gesture of thanks and love. For the next nineteen years, he never stopped charming the people of Spencer with his enthusiasm, warmth, humility (for a cat), and, above all, his sixth sense about who needed him most."--From publisher description.
