The Law of Correspondence [sound recording] / Geoffrey Hodson. Wheaton, IL : Theosophical Society in America, 2010, c1971. 1 sound disc (38 min.)

In the Book of Proverbs is the statement that the spirit of man is the candle of the Lord. Geoffrey Hodson says that there is a close similarity between the processes by which the powers in the cosmos and the powers in man become manifest and evolve. Occult teachings speak of an extraordinary system of continually interacting mutual resonances between the universe and the human being. The German philosopher Goethe seemed to echo this truth with his somewhat cryptic statement that the eye could not see the sun if it did not contain the sun within itself. Knowledge of these correspondences provides a key to understanding both the universe and the place of humanity in that vast system.

Myth [videorecording] : a once and future map to the inner landscape / John Algeo. Wheaton, IL : Theosophical Society in America, 2009, c2008. 1 videodisc (48 min.)

A myth is something that never happened but that is always true: so said Sallustius, a fourth-century Neo-Platonist. That wise old Greek wrote a book called On the Gods and the Cosmos, pointing out that myths are about things that happen inside our souls. One of the major mythic themes is the quest. In literature, from ancient epics like the Ramayana and the Odyssey to modern fantasies like Harry Potter, the Quest is a theme that spans the centuries and reveals our inner life to ourselves.

War's violence is so severe that it can cause the true self to become distorted. It is estimated that 30% of Iraq veterans return with Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD). Our speaker explores the inner world of combat and the universal dimensions of veterans' wounding as revealed through world history, mythology, archetypal psychology, and cross-cultural perspectives. By investigating the neglected spiritual interpretations of the war experience, as well as the psycho-spiritual interventions, we find practices that rebuild veterans' identities, shrink trauma, and restore wounded dimensions of soul.
