

Illustrations and Specimen Letters

Respectfully submitted to the consideration of Mr. Simnett, under the direct orders of Brother Foot Moon—
Amos H. Minibury

With the exception of fee—too exaggerated—his views are quite correct. Just is the impression produced upon the native mind.
I trust, my dear friend, that you add a paragraph showing the Society in its true light. Listen to your inner voice and oblige me more yours' Ever faithfully
A. H.

A specimen of "M.'s" handwriting and signature, which appears in all the letters either in red ink, or red pencil.

Damodar K. Mavalankar

With the exception of few - too exaggerated - his views are quite correct. Such is the impression
 produced upon the native mind.
 add a paragraph showing the Society in its true light. As to to our inner bond, and oblige once more your's Ever faithfully
